QUEBEC STUDENTS NEED ACCOMMODATION

Douglas College is still looking for accommodations for students from Quebec who will be involved in an English Language immersion program on the College's Surrey Campus from May 28 to July 7.

Families willing to house a student for the six-week period will receive $240 in compensation.

Host families would be expected to provide room accommodation, breakfast and dinner for the student. Lunches will be provided by the College.

The object of the immersion program is to expand the students' ability to speak English and to give them an appreciation of B.C. and its people.

If you live near Douglas College's Surrey Campus at 9260-140th Street, and are interested in billeting a student, contact Housing Co-ordinator Bev Mercer at 596-6341.
